

ASSISTANT FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER. The Federal Public Defender for the Southern District of West Virginia, at Charleston, seeks an experienced criminal defense attorney. The successful applicant must have a demonstrated capacity or aptitude for excellence in trial and appellate practice, a commitment to the representation of indigent accused persons, and sufficient experience to immediately undertake the defense of serious criminal cases in the United States courts. This position also requires excellent research skills, proficiency in computer-assisted legal research, word processing capability, and time management skills. Applicant must be a graduate of an accredited law school and have admission and good standing in a state bar. Admission to the WV bar and the bar of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of WV, or a commitment to admission within one year of entrance on duty, are also required. Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Position immediately available. Applications must be received by January 31, 2003. To apply, forward letter of interest, resume with 3 professional references, writing sample, and law school and undergraduate transcripts to: Mary Lou Newberger, Federal Public Defender, U.S. Courthouse, Room 3400, 300 Virginia Street, East, Charleston, West Virginia 25301. Participation in Electronic Funds Transfer (direct deposit) for payment of net pay is mandatory. Equal Opportunity Employer.